

Extending Life at any Cost?

15 February 2018, 10.30 - 16.30

The Woolf Institute Building, Westminster College,
Cambridge, CB3 0AA

This one day conference will explore issues surrounding end of life palliative care, including the role hospices, hospitals and communities of faith play in understanding what constitutes a 'good death'. Speakers will also discuss technology related to extending life and the implications of Artificial Intelligence for human dignity when life is extended through transhumanism.

Speakers: Prof. John Wyatt (UCL & The Faraday Institute)
Prof. David Jones (Bioethics, Oxford)
Mr Nav Siddiqi (Woolf Institute)
Revd Dr Derek Fraser (Senior Chaplain, Addenbrookes)

Open to all. Register by visiting: www.faraday-institute.org

Tel. 01223 748 888

