

Related Party Transactions

Examples of related party transactions which are to be included in the declaration of each Trustee's interests are:

- sales to the Institute of goods, services, other assets or property;
- purchases from the Institute of goods, services, other assets or property;
- leasing arrangements with the Institute;
- licensing, technology and research and development activities with the Institute;
- provision of guarantees or collateral security to the Institute;
- agency agreements with the Institute;
- management contracts with the Institute;
- provision of finance from or to the Institute (including loans and equity contributions in cash or in kind);
- settlement of liabilities on behalf of the Institute or by the Institute on behalf of another party;
- any other transactions.

Woolf Institute,
Cambridge

March 2016