Summer School

22nd June - 3rd July, 2020

The Summer School aims to increase tolerance and interdependence through the design of a curriculum and a learning environment conducive to academic study and fostering understanding of the diversity of beliefs, attitudes and perspectives.

Participants will sit alongside Master's students from the Cambridge Theological Federation who are working towards one of four MA degrees recently accredited by Anglia Ruskin University. Participants have the opportunity to undertake one programme on the Summer School as an accredited MA module or choose to take one or more for personal or professional development and receive a Woolf Institute Certificate of Completion.
