

Woolf Institute Research Day 2020
Wednesday 4 November 2020, Zoom
 Register here: <https://bit.ly/3o7ZuA9>

Session 1: 12pm-1pm

Julian Hargreaves	The Woolf Institute's Diversity Study of England and Wales 2020
Lea Taragin-Zeller	Public Health, Religion and COVID-19
Chris Cooper-Davies	Interfaith in Interwar Iraq: Shi'i Anti-sectarian Campaigners in Najaf, 1918 - 1941
Tobias Müller	Orthodox Masculinities: Money, Love and God in North London
Dunya Habash	"Shall We Sing When We are at War?": Syria's Shifting Cultural Imaginary
Rodrigo Garcia Velasco	Judicial Frontiers: Jews at Christian Courts of Law in Medieval Iberia
Merav Rosenfeld-Hadad	The Living in Harmony Project: Facts and Insights After Two Years of Research

Session 2: 2pm-3pm

Philip Wood	Arabia, Arabic and Arabians from the Nabateans to the Umayyads'
Lina Molokotos	Interfaith Engagement One Joke at a Time
Emanuelle Degli Esposti	Towards a European Shi'ism?: Entanglements of the Sacred and Secular
Ani Avetisyan	Lost Judaeo-Arabic Medical Manuscripts of Matenadaran
Sam Victor	Evangelicals and the Creation of Pluralist Spaces in Nashville, Tennessee
Christopher Wadibia	Nigerian Pentecostalism and Development Theologies: Assessing the Theologies That Underpin the RCCG's Christian Social Responsibility Programme
Katherine O'Lone	Measuring Success: How Best to Assess the Impact of Interfaith Dialogue

Session 3: 3.30pm-4.30pm

Hina Khalid	'Harmonising the Universal and the Particular: the Configuration of Religious and National Identities in Colonial India'
Alissa Symon	Why do American Jews Intervene in Israeli Politics?
Ed Kessler	Preparing a Documentary History of Jewish-Christian Relations: From New Testament Times to the Modern Day. Possibilities and Pitfalls
Gorazd Andrejč	Vulnerability As Key Concept in New Religious Humanism
Mohammed Ahmed	What Do Later Islamic Texts Divulge about Early Muslim-Jewish Relations?
Tara Zammit	Taking the Institute Online: Podcasts, Teaching and Public Relations